

The head to this in the list

long for the Tax lists has been prepared in order of whatever tends to distinguish and properly charged with taxes, as well for the duty of Individuals, who may chuse to inspect the lists as for a necessary direction to the collector where it may be requisite to report to the Property itself for the recovery of the Tax. It is not however expected that all the columns in this heading will in every instance be filled for the record, although aided by reference to the particular lists may not always enable the Surveyor to fill them; but so far as these Documents do furnish matter for the purpose it is considered desirable that the descriptions for which these columns are designed should not be omitted The separate amount of Tax payable by each person on houses, lands and Slaves must as well as the total amount be absolutely inserted for the Law itself prescribes it -

The heading attached to the cross is intended to apply by turning it outward as occasion may require to every page of the Book, in case the transcribing this heading on each page should be found too laborious a work. The first file has the printed heading affixed to it by way of Example. The whole Book is to be ruled agreeably to this form at least so far as regards the downwright lines - It will be an necessary precaution to ascertain the number of names to be included in the list before the space between them is regulated -
