EXECUTIVE ORDER OF FEBRUARY 20, 1979

01.01.1979.02

WHEREAS, I Harry R. Hughes, Governor of the State of Maryland, have previously issued an Executive Proclamation proclaiming a situation of public crisis, emergency and civil disturbance within the City of Baltimore;

WHEREAS, I proclaimed and announced in such Executive Proclamation that by reason of such public emergency and crisis, I would promulgate and issue such reasonable Executive Orders and other regulations as deemed necessary to protect life and property in the areas designated above or to bring the emergency situation within the affected areas under control; and

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the foregoing and because I am informed and persuaded that the following is reasonably necessary in view of the situation of emergency, I do hereby proclaim and issue the following further order:

1. No person shall be allowed on the public streets, grounds, or highways in the City of Baltimore between the hours of 7:00 P.M., Tuesday, February 20, 1979, and 5:00 A.M., Wednesday, February 21, 1979, unless for the purpose of answering emergency calls or going to or from their place of employment.

2. Any violation of this order shall be punishable as a misdemeanor and shall subject the offender to a fine of not more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) or not more than sixty (60) days incarceration, or both, upon conviction thereof.
