

digging, constructing, installing, abandoning, by permanent disconnection altering, or repairing of any well]:

(1) MAKING, ALTERING, REPAIRING, OR SEALING A WELL; OR

(2) INSTALLING, ALTERING, REPAIRING, OR DISCONNECTING WELL SYSTEM EQUIPMENT.

REVISOR'S NOTE: Ch. _____, Acts of 1981, which enacted Titles 20 and 21 of the Health Occupations Article, also amended this section to conform the definitions of this section to similar definitions in Title 21 of the Health Occupations Article.

Former subsections (d), (f), (g), (h), and (i) of this section were renumbered to be subsections (c), (d), (e), (f), and (g), respectively.

In subsection (g) of this section, the former terms used to describe the activities of a well driller are conformed to the description of the same activities in the definition of "practice well drilling" in § 21-101 of the Health Occupations Article.

Former subsections (c) and (e) of this section, which defined "aquifer" and "business of well drilling", respectively, are deleted as unnecessary.

The only other changes are in style.

8-603.

[A licensed well driller may not undertake any operation to bore, core, dig, or construct a well for any owner who is required to obtain a permit for production and appropriation of waters from a well under the provisions of this title until the owner has obtained the permit from the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene. A] AN APPROPRIATION OR USE permit UNDER § 8-802 OF THIS TITLE may not be refused for domestic use OF A WELL on a farm.

REVISOR'S NOTE: Ch. _____, Acts of 1981, which enacted Titles 20 and 21 of the Health Occupations Article, also amended this section by transferring to Title 20 the former first sentence of the section, which prohibited a licensed well driller from drilling a well until the well driller obtained a permit for appropriation or use from the Department of Natural Resources.

The former second sentence of this section is revised to be the only provision of this section.