

the prolongation of the south line of Walters Lane Subdivision, thence in a straight line to a stone at the south end of the south $11^{\circ} 0'$ west 1974.7 foot line of the Samuel W. Simpson tract, thence following the boundary lines of the Simpson tract, to a point 300 feet south of the Marlboro Road, thence in a line parallel to and 300 feet south of the Marlboro Road to the present boundary line of the Washington Suburban Sanitary District, and thence northerly across Marlboro Road with the present boundary line of the district to the place of beginning. And beginning for the same at an iron spike driven at a point on the south side of Marlboro Pike and running with the side of the pike south $40^{\circ} 30'$ east, 383.2 feet to an iron pipe; thence leaving the pike, bounding on the property of Bartz, south $25^{\circ} 23'$ west 1059.3 feet to a planted stone; thence north $77^{\circ} 45'$ west, bounding on the property of Dreis, 546 feet to a planted stone; thence north $33^{\circ} 07'$ east, bounding on the properties of Alice Clancy and Moore, 1352.2 feet to the south side of the Marlboro Pike and the point of beginning; excepting therefrom, however, a strip of land extending 300 feet wide at right angles from and parallel with the line of Marlboro Pike, the strip being a part of the property comprised within the zone of authority heretofore granted to the Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission by Act of the General Assembly of Maryland. And all of the subdivision known as "W. A. Hitt's First Addition to Parkland" as described in a plat recorded among the land records of Prince George's County in plat book S. D. H. 4, at folio 77, and beginning at a point 300 feet east or southeast of the southeasterly intersection of the Marlboro Pike and the Suitland Road, leading from the Marlboro Pike to Silver Hill, and running thence southwesterly paralleling Suitland Road and equi-distant 300 feet therefrom to the Southern Maryland Pike at Silver Hill, sometimes called Walker Road; thence crossing the pike at right angles and a distance of 300 feet; and thence with the pike westwardly and paralleling the same equi-distant 300 feet therefrom to the present line of the Washington Suburban Sanitary District one-half mile from the District of Columbia line; and thence with the line northerly or northeasterly to the boundary of the district at or near the Marlboro Pike; and thence with the boundary easterly to the place of beginning. The jurisdiction of the Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission is hereby extended to include the territory above described, and the areas shall be subject to all of the rules and regulations of the commission and all of the provisions of law relating to the district, including taxes, assessments and benefit charges levied in all other parts of the district.

[19-]11.

The following area is hereby added to the Washington Suburban Sanitary District: Beginning for the same at a stone marked "B" on the east line of the whole tract and