

JOURNAL.

WEDNESDAY, January 4, 1865.

STATE OF MARYLAND, TO WIT:

This being the day appointed by the Constitution for the meeting of the General Assembly of Maryland, the members elect of the House of Delegates assembled in their Hall in the city of Annapolis. The Clerk of the last House, William R. Cole, called the House to order, when the following members responded:

Allegany County.—Samuel P. Smith, Henry Brown, S. W. Wardwell, Michael Sherry, Mathias G. Dean.

Anne Arundel.—Oliver Miller, James S. Robinson.

Baltimore City.—First Legislative District.—Caleb B. Hynes, Christopher Bartell, James H. Cook, James F. Lee, Thomas B. Hambleton, H. T. C. Tarr.

“ “ Second Legislative District.—F. T. Darling, John M. Frazier, Joseph Harris, Samuel J. Soper, T. J. Tull, Thomas H. Mules.

“ “ Third Legislative District.—J. E. Pilkington, J. P. Cummings, M. S. Showacre, H. G. Hazen, H. C. Garrison, H. C. Jones.

Baltimore County.—William H. Hoffman, George Slothower, David K. Lusby, David King, Zephaniah Poteet, Nicholas H. Parker.

Carroll County.—Nicholas D. Norris, Moses Shaw, John W. Angell, William S. Wooden, Geo. Everhart

Caroline County.—Arthur J. Willis, F. A. Clift.

Calvert County.—Henry Williams.

Charles County.—Frederick Stone.