

shall be ineffective if the county purchases or leases personal property similar or functionally related to that purchased or leased under the contract within a period of time after termination, as specified in the contract;

(3) The contract provides that, absent a default in payment by the purchasing or leasing county under the contract, any obligation to pay amounts due under the contract shall be limited to funds appropriated for this purpose for that fiscal year; and

(4) The contract provides that, in the event of default in payment by the county under the contract, any obligation to pay amounts due under the contract shall be limited to funds appropriated for this purpose for that fiscal year, amounts realized from the personal property purchased or leased under the contract, and any other funds legally available for this purpose.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That, subject to Section 3 of this Act, and notwithstanding any other provision of law, any contract entered into by the Board of County Commissioners of Garrett County prior to the effective date of this Act shall be deemed authorized as if this Act had been in effect ~~if consistent with the provisions of Section 1 of this Act.~~

SECTION 3. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act does not apply to, or affect, any transaction to the extent the transaction is the subject of litigation pending as of March 6, 1995.

SECTION 4. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act is an emergency measure, is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, has been passed by a ye and nay vote supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, and shall take effect from the date it is enacted.

May 24, 1995

The Honorable Casper R. Taylor, Jr.
Speaker of the House of Delegates
State House
Annapolis MD 21401

Dear Mr. Speaker:

In accordance with Article II, Section 17 of the Maryland Constitution, I have today vetoed House Bill 1382.

This amended unemployment insurance bill makes retroactive to October 1, 1992, the provision that work performed by a yacht salesperson for a licensed trader on a commission basis is not covered employment under the unemployment insurance law. Wages paid through September 30, 1994 for a licensed trader for payment solely by commission can be used in determining monetary eligibility for unemployment benefits.