

Resolved, That the treasurer of the western shore pay to Gideon Pearce, one hundred dollars, as a compensation for his services in preparing the fee bill reported to the legislature at the present session; and to Benson Coe, twenty dollars for his services as committee clerk.

The clerk of the senate returns the said resolution, endorsed "read and assented to."

The engrossed bills from No. 207 to 216, and from 221 to 228, inclusive, were read, assented to, and sent to the senate.

The clerk of the senate returns the said bills, endorsed "assented to."

Messrs. Scott and Emory from the senate, inform the Speaker that his excellency the Governor is in the senate chamber, for the purpose of completing the signing and sealing of the engrossed bills, and request the attendance of the Speaker, and members of this house. The Speaker and members, went to the senate chamber, when his excellency the governor completed the signing and sealing of the engrossed bills, in the presence of both houses.

The Speaker, with the members, returned and resumed the chair, and the house adjourns until the first Monday in October next.

By order, JOHN BREWER, Clk.

REPORT

Of the Treasurer of the Western Shore, on the claim of Thomas Cockey Deye's Representative; in obedience to resolution No. 38, of December session 1824.

[Vide Order proposed by Mr. Merrick, page 299.]

To the Honourable the General Assembly of Maryland.

GENTLEMEN,

On the application of Alexander Nisbet, Esq. administrator D. B. N. of the late Thomas Cockey Deye of Baltimore county, and in obedience to your resolution No. 38, of the last session, the treasurer for the western shore has carefully investigated the subject submitted to him by the said resolution, and makes the following report:

By an act of April session 1787, ch. 37, trustees were appointed to sell the real estate of one Archibald Buchanan, for final settlement certificates, including interest accrued and not paid since the 1st January 1785, to be applied to the payment of his debt to the state, at the rate of $$2\frac{1}{4}$ for $$1$.

Mr. Deye became the purchaser, and paid the trustees the pur-
