

I have the honor to be, sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant, without which pleasure in expenditures.

entirely, it is believed that the people of the State will whole amount of $10,000 be called for by a levy imposed it will not be expended, and should it be wanted, and the course of the Board of State Managers gives a guarantee that the amount not be required for its intended object, the pay being law making the appropriation for colonization. Should attached herewith to solicit that no change be made in the no large portion of the inhabitants of the State, I am trust in the welfare of the free people of color, consisting

CHARLES HOWARD

President Maryland State Colonization Society

Baltimore, February 22, 1860