

mode of punishment will materially lessen the catalogue of crime committed by this race, and relieve our Penitentiary from the care and support of many, who are now a serious incubus and expense to the Institution.

Your Committee respectfully ask the attention of your honorable body to the recommendations herein made. They have endeavored to discharge the duties committed to them, with fidelity and impartiality; but unless they have the co-operation of your honorable body, their efforts will prove of no avail.

All of which, your Committee respectfully submit, &c.

On the part of the House,

G. W. GOLDSBOROUGH, Ch'r.,
JAMES W. MAXWELL,
MARCUS DENNISON.

On the part of the Senate,

J. J. HECKART, Ch'r.,
ANDREW A. LYNCH,
THOS. J. GRAHAME.