

REPORT

REPORT

The Select Committee on the Administration of Justice, to whom was referred the memorial of the Law Society of England, for the removal of the jurisdiction of the High Court of Justice, in relation to the administration of justice, has the honor to report that it has considered the same and has arrived at the following conclusions:

COMMITTEE

It is the opinion of the Committee that the jurisdiction of the High Court of Justice should be retained in relation to the administration of justice, and that the jurisdiction of the High Court of Justice should be extended to the administration of justice in relation to the High Court of Justice.

The Committee has also considered the memorial of the Law Society of England, for the removal of the jurisdiction of the High Court of Justice, in relation to the administration of justice, and has arrived at the following conclusions:

It is the opinion of the Committee that the jurisdiction of the High Court of Justice should be retained in relation to the administration of justice, and that the jurisdiction of the High Court of Justice should be extended to the administration of justice in relation to the High Court of Justice.