Advice to Young Gentlemen.

The following advice is given to young men by their well wisher, Josh Billings:—

1st—If you hav soup for breakfast, don't undertak to eat it with yure fingers, not if you kan git a fork, and never wipe your noze on the table-cloth as long as you hav got a coat sleeve.

2d—If you don't know how to chu terbacker, looze no time; the best way is to go behind a hog-pen and practis before you chaw in public, but persevere, its the onla wa yure Pa larnt.

3d—If you hav got to be 12 years old, and can't sware good, the chances are you wont ever amount to ennything. About az good a wa I know uv to larn, is to begin by saying 'condemit,' and then work up.

4th—Larning how to drink is a slow process, but dredful sartin; cider iz pratty sartin to get the hang with, but rum cherrys is sartin.

5th—Bi all means at an early age git into the habit of staing out late at nites. Don't miss a circus, tha ar means ov grace. Kall all vartue nonsense, and suspeck all feemales. Watch yure older brother, and brag on his devilttries.

Foller theze rules clos, and if tha don't mak a plum ov you, you kan safly konklude that you hav mistook the crook of youre genus and probably designed for a decent man.

A splendid ear but a very poor voice, as the organ-grinder said of the donkey.
