TO
Merchants & owners of Vessels
GENERALLY:
AN association having been formed by a number of master Ship-Carpenters, under the denomination of "The Baltimore Shipwrights," for the purpose of executing in the most expeditious and workmanlike manner any commands in the said line of business—they hereby solicit a share of public patronage, and inform that JAMES CORDEY, their president, and JAMES WHEEDEN and WILLIAM DRUMMOND, superintendants, on Fell's Point, are prepared to receive all orders which merchants, captains or others may favor them with. They will for the present conduct their business, on the wharf occupied by J. Wheeden, adjoining Mr. Jno. Hollins's wharf, where they will always be provided with spare Spars and other out-fits, to furnish at the shortest notice and on the most moderate terms.
It is deemed expedient to notice, that all the persons forming the association are masters of their business, and as they intend themselves, principally, to give their personal application in executing work for their employers, it is fondly hoped, that on this score they will claim a preference from those who make it an object to have things done in a masterly manner.
N. B. They have now on hand, a sufficiency of well seasoned stuff for the building of several vessels.
June 20

10 Dollars Reward.
RAN away from the subscriber yesterday morning, an apprentice to the Painting and Glazing business, named WALTER CHAMBERLAIN; between 17 and 18 years of age, about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, a bluff faced, suttly looking fellow. His right hand was cut on Friday last with a hatchet, in playing with one of his companions, which will leave a remarkable scar. He had on when he went away a nankeen jacket and trousers, and an old fur hat, which, from the paint, has become an emblem of his profession. Ten dollars will be given to any person who will apprehend and return him to the subscriber.
ANDREW BLOCH.
All masters of vessels and others are forewarned from harboring or carrying off said fellow, at their peril.
