Two Dromedaries,
FROM ARABIA.
THESE are the first of the species ever imported into this country. The value of them is such, that the Arabian, possessed of his Dromedary, has nothing either to want or to fear. They will travel at the rate of a hundred miles in a day, 5 or 6 days together, without either eating or drinking. They are part like the horse, cow, sheep, and the rabbit and are the most docile animal in the world.
They kneel down, take on their load, and wait the pleasure of their keeper to rise. They arrive at their full growth at 6 years old, which is about 20 hands high, and live to the age of 40 or 50 years. The oldest of the above is forty years, and the youngest 17 months.
These astonishing Animals are to be seen at No. 36, opposite the lower Marsh-market.
It is to be hoped the Ladies and Gentlemen of Baltimore will not lose this favourable opportunity which may be the only one (at least for many years) of viewing these surprising animals, so much spoken of by naturalists and Historians.
Admittance 25 cents, children half price.
January 14

Academy.
THE subscriber once more tenders his services to the public; and offers them as a teacher in the following branches—Reading, writing, arithmetic, English grammar, geography and the Latin and Greek languages. His intention is, for himself, to induct youth into the first principles and unfolding beauties of the Latin and Greek—to take them by the hand, and lead them thro' the devious paths of ancient literature—Sometimes, it is acknowledged, rugged, but certainly always instructive, if not pleasant—Having trodden these paths himself, he can with the more propriety, recommend them to others.—Such talents as he possesses, shall be entirely devoted to the instruction of those committed to his charge. Aware that to seek is not always to find—to ask is not uniformly to receive—and to receive is not unde-viatingly to be satisfied—he shall bring to his own aid, and to his pupils instruction, whatever the occasion may suggest.—All who are acquainted with the operations of the human mind, will know that, what came, as it were, by intuition yesterday, may not, when sought for, be found to-day; and, without calling after, may nurse itself upon the recollection tomorrow—but whatever may be in store, shall be freely dealt out to candidates for knowledge.
Time of commencement, Monday the 21st instant.—Terms 10 dollars per quarter.—Place shall be named when a suitable situation can be procured.

A MODEL IN WOOD,
OF THE ANCIENT CITY OF
JERUSALEM,
THIS ingenious piece of mechanism, so universally admired by every person who has seen and heard it explained, is laid out on a scale of fore our eyes the trial and crucifixion of our Divine Saviour.

invite all, and particularly the religious of every denomination to attend his Lectures.
