50 Dollars Reward

FOR SON JONES, A RUNAWAY.
ABSCONDED from Linville's Comb Factory, No 70, Market-street, on Sunday the 13th instant, an apprentice boy named THOMAS JONES, but more generally known by the before mentioned name; he is almost 18 years old; 5 feet 6 inches high; very slender built; brown complexion; grey or blue eyes; stoops when walking; in consequence of his right leg having been broken when young; down look, and very fond of the company of negroes; and much addicted to gambling with them. He is a treatable, and will occasionally condescend to talk, and sometimes get intoxicated. Had on when he went away, a coarse shirt and trousers of German Linen; an old hat with one or two holes in it; he has been accustomed to sail on board craft from hence to the Eastern Shore, particularly up the bay, until about 12 months since, during which time he has wrought at the comb-making business, in my factory. I will pay any person who apprehends said boy, if in the city, 15 dollars; if in Baltimore county, 20 dollars; or, if out of the state, the above reward, with all reasonable expenses to secure him in jail, or bring him home to the subscriber.
JOHN H. PRATT.
N. B. I have little doubt but he is lurking about the wharves, or the vicinity of the city. Masters of vessels and others, are forwarded against harboring or carrying off said boy at their peril.
