In Baltimore County Court,
 MAY 13, 1806.
ON application to the Judges of the said County Court, by petition in writing of William Starr, surviving partner of William Starr and Joseph Price, of said County, praying the benefit of the "Act for the Relief of sundry Insolvent Debtors," passed at November Session, Eighteen Hundred and Five, on the terms mentioned in the said Act; a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, as directed by the said Act, being annexed to his petition; and the said County Court being satisfied by competent testimony, that the said William Starr has resided the two preceding years within the State of Maryland, prior to the passage of said Act; and the said William Starr, at the time of presenting his petition as surviving partner of William Starr and Joseph Price, as aforesaid, having produced to the said Court, the assent in writing of so many of their creditors as have due to them the amount of two thirds of the debts due by them at the time of passing the said Act.
 It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, by the said Court, that the said William Starr, (by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the daily papers of the city of Baltimore, for three months before the seventh day of October next) give notice to their creditors to appear before the said County Court, at the Court House in the said county, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of the said seventh day of October next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, on the said William Starr, then and there taking the oath by the said Act prescribed for deliv'ing up their property.
 Signed by order,
WM. GIBSON, Clerk.

100 Dollars Reward.
RAN AWAY from the subscribers, living in Baltimore, on Sunday morning, the 6th July, a negro man named ELIJAH. He is about twenty years of age, five feet, ten or eleven inches high; slender round the waist, but a remarkable strong, big limbed fellow. He is a light blackman; has a large flat nose, with very thick prominent lips; has his wool cut, so as to form a roof over the top of his head. He is a ready-witted fellow, smart in answering questions; when spoken to in a good humor, generally laughs, and shews a handsome set of teeth; walks with a long step, and rocking motion with his body. He has taken with him a variety of cloths, among which are a pair of nankeen pantaloons; coarse linen shirts and trousers; an old castor hat, and a fusin roundabout jacket. We purchased him about 12 months since, of Mr. Richard Key Heath, acting as attorney of Susanna Wilson, of Kent county, to which place he has probably gone. Whoever will apprehend the above mentioned slave, and lodge him in any jail, so that we may get him again, shall receive 50 dollars, if taken in Maryland, and the above reward, if taken out of said state, with all reasonable charges if brought home.

Do. do. 8000 } 400
Do. do. 10,000 } 500
The last 3 dollar prize, } 1,000
48,000
Sum raised, including expence, } 12,000

21,000 Tickets, at Five Dollars each, 60,000
 From the above scheme it appears that there are no blanks, and that the purchaser of tickets will have to pay no more than Two Dollars in advance on each ticket—and as the full price of each ticket is Five Dollars, there will remain due on each ticket Three Dollars, which will be retained out of the prize money.
 The advantages offered to adventurers, and the object to which the money is principally to be applied, the managers hope, will produce such a speedy sale of tickets as may enable them to commence the drawing at an early day.
 The prizes will be paid in sixty days after the completion of the drawing; and such as may not be demanded within twelve months will be considered as generous donations to church.

To the Public.
CALEB M'KENZIE, Mathematical Instrument Maker, from Philadelphia, at No. 21, Thames-street, Full's-Point, next door to Mr. James Ramsey's, takes this method of informing the citizens of Baltimore, the Mercantile and seafaring part in particular, that he has been induced, in consequence of the death of Mr. Sweeney, to leave a very good establishment in Philadelphia, for the purpose of carrying on the above business in this city, where he flatters himself from his being regularly brought up to his profession, by an apprenticeship of seven years, added to the experience of five years as a foreman, and two years as a master, he shall be enabled to give every satisfaction to those gentlemen who may please to honor him with their business; and as C. M'Kenzie is the only person at present in this city, who has been regularly bred to his profession, he has reason to hope that he will have no cause to regret the exchange he has made.
 N. B. Sextants, Quadrants, Telescopes and Compasses cleaned and repaired in the most correct manner. Brass and wood compasses made to any size or dimension. Gauging rods of all kinds made on the most approved construction.
 I do certify that the bearer Caleb M'Kenzie has been regularly instructed by me, in the Mathematical and Optical branches of business, and that he is capable of carrying on the same in such a manner, as to give satisfaction to all those who are inclined to employ him.
THOMAS BIGGS,
 Mathematical and Optical Instrument maker,
 No. 85, South Front-street, Philadelphia.
 We believe the above character given of Mr. Caleb M'Kenzie, to be strictly just and well deserved.
