that I have relinquished my application for the office of SHERIFF, for the next term—In order to counteract such a belief, I hereby again solicit my friends and the public in general, to keep me in view for that office, offering them my most sincere acknowledgment for their friendly disposition towards me at the late election.

Ten Dollars Reward,
LOOK OUT!
RAN away from the office of the American, yesterday morning, after neglecting to serve a great number of subscribers to this paper in his unshrunk JOHN BROWN, carrier of the American for Old-Town. He is nearly 16 years of age; about four feet ten inches high; has flaxen hair, a fair complexion, and red and full cheeks; his face is rather round than long; he does not speak fast, but somewhat plausibly.
He was seen yesterday morning in Old-Town.
It is believed that he has made the best of his way to Frederick-town, being the son of George Brown, miller, in the vicinity of that place.— He had on a pair of Bennet's cord pantaloons; striped (the stripes running crosswise) swan-down waistcoat and brown cloth failor jacket; a new hat, good shoes and stockings. Whoever will apprehend the said boy and bring him to the Printing-Office of the American, or secure him in any jail so that his master gets him again, shall have, if taken in the city of Baltimore, five dollars; and if out of the county the above reward.
N. B. Those who harbor John Brown, be they relatives, friends or strangers to him, may depend upon being prosecuted with the utmost rigor that the law will justify.
