For the Prevention and Cure of Bilious and Malignant Fevers
IS RECOMMENDED

Lee's Anti-Bilious Pills,

Prepared by Richard Lee & Son, Baltimore.
Persons wishing to purchase this valuable Medicine, are requested to be particular in enquiring for Lee's Anti-Bilious Pills, put up in wooden boxes, having on the outside wrapper the signature of Richard Lee and Son—this is necessary, as there are other pills of the same name.
The operation of these Pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation, and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile, and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—produce a free perspiration, and thereby prevent colds, which are often of fatal consequences—a dose never fails to remove a cold, if taken on its first appearance. They are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach, and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Messrs. Richard Lee & Son,
The high opinion I have of your Bilious Pills, and a desire to make known their utility for the benefit of mankind, I wish you to publish the following:

For two months past, I have been afflicted with a violent sickness at the stomach, an inclination to vomit, and loss of appetite—by taking two doses of your pills, I am restored to a perfect state of health—which induced my wife to try them also, which was attended with the same good effects, being now able to attend to her domestic concerns: In my opinion, this medicine is unequalled in stomach and bowel complaints, not being attended with that gripping pain, common to other remedies.

JOHN SCOTT,

THE DWELLING HOUSE and GARDEN, at present occupied by him, situate on the Hook's-town Turnpike Road, a short distance from St. Mary's College. It fronts on the road seventy-four feet, and runs back 200 feet, to a twenty feet alley. The Garden is as highly improved as any in the environs of the city, and planted with the choicest Shrubs, Flowers and Fruit Trees; and has the advantage of a singularly well constructed Green House, which requires no artificial heat during the severest winters, and is at present stocked with a collection of the choicest Plants, all which will be sold together. The purchaser may be accommodated with a small Lot adjoining, twelve feet wide, and one hundred feet deep, on which is erected a good three horse frame Stable. As any person wishing to purchase will view the premises, any further description is deemed unnecessary.

To Merchants, &c.

A young man, perfectly competent to the duties of the station, wishes a situation as supercargo to Europe, any port in the West Indies, or to any part of the continent. He has been bred to business, and is well versed in commercial transactions; understands the French language perfectly, and speaks it tolerably. For his integrity and morality, respectable persons will vouch. His connections residing in the city; his knowledge of a number of the West India Islands, and the faithful performance of his duties as a clerk in this town, emboldens him to make an offer of his services in the above situation. On application he will be found adequate to any branch of business; and his character such as to merit any trust. Pecuniary motives have not altogether induced him to advertise; his terms will therefore be satisfactory to those who may honor him with their confidence—

The Grand Master of Malta,

A remarkably fine Jack, brought direct from Malta, by Commodore Rodgers; will stand to cover mares and jennies during the ensuing season, at Hampton, the country seat of General Ridgely, at the moderate price of ten dollars each, for the season, for Mares, and one hundred dollars for each Jenny.

The Grand Master is now 3 years old, and is allowed by the best judges, to be the largest and handsomest Jack ever seen in this country.
To avoid trouble, the money must be sent with the mares or jennies.

Mr. Wrifford,

Late from Boston, Purposes to teach the ART of WRITING, in this place, by a new and expeditious method.
Persons rising ten or twelve years of age, possessing good common capacities, may acquire a fair and handsome hand, by receiving twenty lessons, one hour of time to each lesson.

The method is well suited for the benefit of young persons fitting for the mercantile line of business; and also for ordinary writers already engaged in the same life, of almost whatever age; likewise for young gentlemen who are either in or destined for the learned professions.

Ladies who either have or have not received their education, in other respects, can be attended either at their own dwellings, or elsewhere, as they may choose.

Mr. W. takes up the Art of Writing as a species of drawing, and teaches it by a system of rules, methodically arranged: but as the plan may perhaps be rather novel in this city, it would be difficult, in a notification like this, to point out the peculiar mode of proceeding.

Any person who may think proper to call on Mr. W. at Mr. D. Fulton's, sign of the Globe, Baltimore-street, will, it is presumed, be satisfied in those particulars of which they may wish to enquire.

Wanted on hire a pleasant room, in a healthy part of the city.
