Baltimore, July 14th, 1867.
At a meeting of the Field Officers of the 4th Battalion of Maryland Militia, it was Resolved, That the Regiments, forming said Battalion, shall each be composed of Ten Companies; that each Company shall consist of not less than Sixty-four, nor more than Eighty Privates; and that they may be completed by voluntary enlistments, without regard to the limits of the district, allotted to each Regiment.
Resolved, That an immediate enrollment be made of the Citizens in each district between the ages of eighteen and forty five years; that the citizens thus enrolled, and who shall not at the time be attached to a Volunteer Company, shall be allowed ten days from this date to attach themselves, in default of doing which they shall be required to do duty in their respective districts.
Resolved, That in the event of a requisition from the Executive, all the citizens liable to enrollment, shall be subjected to a draft; but that the recognized members of Volunteer Companies shall only stand a draft in the district to which their Regiment belongs.
Resolved, That it be, and it is hereby earnestly recommended to the commanding officers of Companies, not yet attached to any Regiment to make their election, and to attach themselves without delay, ten days only being allowed for that purpose.

lies about eight miles from Patapsco Lower Ferry, in Anne-Arundel County, a NEGRO MAN, named ANTHONY, about 24 years old, about five feet high or ten inches high, pretty well made, and very black.
The little finger of one of his hands has a scar on it, occasioned by a burn, and his buttocks has been scalded in a remarkable manner; he has lost one of his upper front teeth, and has three small scars on the back of his neck, occasioned by cupping. He has on and took with him a new Osnaburg shirt and trousers, a brown Flushing over jacket, one pair of waistcoat, one old blue hawthick do. a new wool hat, and old shoes; he has taken a reap hook, with him, and it is probable he will change his name, and try to pass as a free man, and will employ as a reaper. Any person taking up said negro within the state of Maryland, and brings him to me or secures him so that I get him again, shall receive 12 dollars, and if out of the state the above reward, and all reasonable expences paid by me.

Holy Bible Explained.
HENRY S. KEATINGE returns his sincere thanks to those who have patronized the above work, and informs them that a delay in its publication has arisen in the wish to furnish the public with the first impression of an elegant type, now casting at the infant foundry of Messrs. Sower & Co. in this city: —He is now happy in having it in his power to add, that the letter is so far completed, as to enable him to promise that the work will be put to press in a few days. And to aid in presenting this valuable work with expedition to subscribers, H. S. K. has united himself in its publication with W. Peckers, for whom the handsome type is casting on which the work is to be printed. In this work, the sacred writings are in the most pleasing and rational manner digested and illustrated, by way of Question and Answer; in which, the principal points controverted by modern unbelievers are considered and satisfactorily explained.
In a word, the publishers are confident it will prove to its readers a complete repository of useful and entertaining knowledge.
Subscriptions received at the office of the American. It will be delivered in seven numbers, at 25 cents each, or complete, in boards, at 2 dollars. It will contain 400 pages,
