Admirers of the Fine Arts.
JUST received from Amsterdam, and for sale at the Book and Stationary Store of COLE & I. BONSAL, 174, Market-street, a few copies of the following described Alogo-graphical Picture in Memory of PIUS VI Gentlemen desirous of possessing a copy, should lose no time. The price being very low it is expected they will be speedily disposed of.
"A revered pontiff, a magnanimous sovereign—a noble and affecting spectacle to earth and heaven; he honored at once, by his transcendent virtues, his fortune, age, the throne and the altar."
L'Abbe Delille.
This Picture, designed by J. Knipper, painted by A. de Lette, and engraved by L. Port-man, represents the interior of a temple, in the midst of which is placed a sepulchre, on which is raised the bust of Pius VI. Behind the sepulchre appears Time; he is surrounded by the dark clouds of oblivion, in which he seems desirous of enveloping the bust. But the events which have signified the epoch of Pius the Sixth's reign, and their influence on the destiny of that pontiff, are too remarkable; his virtues, and above all, his patience and resignation truly christian, form too great a contrast with the immortality of his age, to permit oblivion ever to be his lot. Under the figure of a woman transported with a holy zeal, Memoria, who immortalizes great men, stands the menacing arm of Time; whilst on one side of the bust, History, in an attitude of reflection, fixes upon this scene a penetrating eye, and consecrates in her annals the events of the reign of Pius VI. In the front of the picture is a female figure, absorbed in profound grief, and reclining on the emblematical signs of the pontifical dignity. On the opposite side is represented the church, under the emblem of two women, plunged in affliction. Near the bust, and before an altar, on which incense is burning, Religion, always calm, is busy in consoling and encouraging him.
Connoisseurs will easily perceive, that besides the beauties of the detail, and the expression suitable to each figure, this Picture has at the same time the merit of presenting all parts of the allegory in so perfect an agreement, that, without fatiguing the eye or the mind, it equally charms both the one and the other.

Plantation whereon he now resides, about nine acres, about one fourth in wood, consisting of Hickory, Poplar, Chestnut, White & Black Oak, &c.; the foil particularly adapted to the use of plaster, the greater part of the cleared land is in a state of high cultivation, most of the fields are well set with red clover, between thirty & forty acres of excellent timothy; there has been raised for some years past, from eighty to an hundred tons of Hay yearly. This place abounds with springs of excellent water, a great plenty of it in almost every field. The improvements

Land for Sale.
ABOUT 380 acres of Woodland, from nine to ten miles from Baltimore, on the main road to Ellicott's upper Mills: there is a large quantity of timber and wood on this tract; it is allowed by good judges that it will average considerably more cords of wood per acre, than will pay the price I ask for it, as it stands, without any expence or trouble in cutting.
The price of fire-wood the last winter, with the increasing scarcity of that article on the tide waters, and near Baltimore, it is thought will make this property of great value in a few years, to one that has the money to spare.
The whole may be sold together or had in lots, as may best suit purchasers. One half the money will be required in hand, for the other half two or three years credit will be given.
