

In Baltimore County Court,

March Term, 1807.

SIMON FREIZE, an insolvent debtor of Baltimore county, having heretofore applied by petition in writing, to the Judges of the said County Court, praying the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, as directed by the said act, being annexed to his petition; and the said Simon Freize having proved to the satisfaction of the said court that he hath resided in the state of Maryland the two preceding years, prior to the passage of the said act; and having been brought before the said court, and discharged from imprisonment, on taking the oath by said act required.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, by the said court, that the said Simon Freize appear before the county court at the court-house in the said county, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of the 10th day of October next, to answer such interrogatories as may be proposed to him by his creditors; that the said day be, and is hereby appointed the time for the said creditors to appear and recommend a trustee for their benefit; and the said Simon Freize give them notice of the passage of this order, by causing a copy to be inserted in some one of the newspapers in the city of Baltimore every other day for three months successively before the said tenth day of October next.

Signed per order, WM. GIBSON, Clerk.

Mansion-House Hotel,

SOUTH 3d STREET, PHILADELPHIA W. RENSCHAW.

UNDER the impressions of the most lively gratitude, makes his acknowledgments to the public for the patronage he has received in his establishment at the MANSION-HOUSE HOTEL—and respectfully informs them, that he has recently fitted up a house in additions directly opposite the Hotel, in Third-street, which enables him to make up FIFTY BEDS, in a comfortable manner; and that his house is provided with every thing necessary for the entertainment of LADIES & GENTLEMEN TRAVELLING, and others who may please to honor him with their commands.

He further begs to assure his friends that his WINES and LIQUORS are of the first quality, and the accommodations such as will (he trusts) veig general satisfaction.

The above Hotel is commodious and generally situated for business, being near the Public Banks and the Custom-House, and from its being unconnected, with any other building, and having large grounds neatly laid out with gravel walks and well shaded with trees and shrubs, is allowed by every one to be far more pleasant and healthy during the summer months, than any other in the city; the proprietor begs further to assure the public, that no exertion on his part shall be wanting, to render the above in all respects agreeable to his customers, and hopes by his diligence and attention to merit a continuance of public favor.

N. B. The price for Gentlemen Boarding is fixed at $14 per day. Good Stabling and Carriage Houses, with careful Grooms to attend.

From the above Scheme, it appears that there are less than two Blanks to a Prize, and that the Prizes are to be paid without deduction. The advantages offered to adventurers, and the very charitable object to which the money is to be applied, induce the Managers to hope that a speedy sale of the tickets will enable them to commence drawing at an early day. All prizes will be paid in sixty days after the completion of the drawing, and such prizes as are not demanded within twelve months will be considered as generous donations to the ruly charitable object of the Lottery.

Tickets may be had of the Managers, and such other persons as they may appoint to sell. Prizes in the Lotteries now drawing in this city, will be received in payment for tickets.

Treasury Department,

Washington, April 28, 1807.

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN,

THAT in pursuance of a resolution of the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund, at a meeting held on the 23d day of March 1807, James Davidson, Esq. Cashier of the Office of the Treasury and Deposit at Washington, has been appointed Agent under the superintendance of the Secretary of the Treasury to make purchases at private sale of the eight per cent stock on public account. Such persons, therefore, who are proprietors of eight per cent stock, standing on the books of the Commissioners of Loans for Maryland, and who are desirous of selling the same within the time limited by law, are requested to make application to the Commissioner of Loans at Annapolis, who will inform them of the course to be pursued.

It is further made known for the information of the parties concerned, that agreeably to a resolution of the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund, the principal of the eight per cent stock will be reimbursed to the respective proprietors thereof, on the first day of January, 1809.
