

At a Meeting of the DELEGATES appointed by the several Counties of the Province of MARYLAND, at the City of Annapolis, on Wednesday the 26th of July, 1775, and continued till the 14th Day of August, in the same Year, Were present,

ONE HUNDRED AND FORTY-ONE MEMBERS.

The hon. MATTHEW TILGHMAN, Esq; was chosen Chairman.

And GABRIEL DUVALL appointed Clerk.

RESOLVED unanimously, That the following association be signed by the members of this Convention, and by all other the freemen of this province.

ASSOCIATION of the FREEMEN of MARYLAND, July 26, 1775.

THE long premeditated, and now avowed design of the ~~British~~ British government, to raise a revenue from the property of the colonists, without their consent, on the gift, grant, and disposition of the commons of Great-Britain; and the arbitrary and vindictive statutes passed, under colour of punishing a riot, to subdue by military force, and by famine, the Massachusetts-Bay; the unlimited power assumed by parliament to alter the charter of that province, and the constitutions of all the colonies, thereby destroying the essential securities of the lives, liberties, and properties of the colonists; the commencement of hostilities by the ministerial forces, and the cruel prosecution of the war against the people of the Massachusetts-Bay, followed by general Gage's proclamation, declaring almost the whole of the inhabitants of the united colonies, by name or description, rebels and traitors; are sufficient causes to arm a free people in defence of their liberty, and justify resistance, no longer dictated by prudence merely, but by necessity, and leave no alternative but base submission, or manly opposition, to uncontrollable tyranny. The Congress chose the latter, and for the express purpose of securing and defending the united colonies, and preserving them in safety against all attempts to carry the above-mentioned acts into execution by force of arms, Resolved, That the said colonies be immediately put into a state of defence, and now supports, at the joint expence, an army to restrain the further violence, and repel the future attacks, of a disappointed and exasperated enemy.

We, therefore, inhabitants of the province of Maryland, firmly persuaded that it is necessary and justifiable to repel force by force, do approve of the opposition by arms, to the British troops employed to enforce obedience to the late acts and statutes of the British parliament, for raising a revenue in America, and altering and changing the charter and constitution of the Massachusetts-Bay, and for destroying the essential securities for the lives, liberties, and properties of the subjects in the united colonies. And we do unite, and associate as one band, and firmly and solemnly engage and pledge ourselves to each other, and to America, that we will, to the utmost of our power, promote and support the present opposition, carrying on, as well by arms, as by the Continental Association, restraining our commerce.

And as in these times of public danger, and until a reconciliation with Great-Britain, on constitutional principles, is effected (an event we most ardently wish may soon take place) the energy of government may be greatly impaired, so that even zeal unrestrain-
