Convention met.

A petition from William Noke late sheriff of Anne-Arundel county, was read and ordered to lie on the table.

On motion of Mr. Hooe, the question was put, That interest now due on all debts or contracts, or that shall become due till a further regulation, except on loan-office bonds, may be paid in corn, wheat, tobacco, flour, hemp, or cotton, at such prices as may be agreed upon between the creditor and debtor, or on their disagreement, at such prices as may be set by the committee of observation for the county where the debtor resides, such country produce to be offered or tendered by the debtor at the capital of the county where he resides, unless any other place of delivery is agreed upon by the parties? The previous question was called for and put, whether the above question be now put? Carried in the negative.
