

On further examination

states that William S. Lassell was a candidate at the Election aforesaid as a Delegate to the General Assembly of Maryland, that he has no knowledge of any other person by the name of Lassell, Bassell or Barrell who was a candidate at said election; he has no knowledge of any person living in Kent county by the name of Bassell. He has lived in Kent county from his birth, he has been engaged in the clerk's office of Kent county for some eight or nine years; he states during the time aforesaid his acquaintance with the people of the county was pretty extensive, states that there is a gentleman living in Kent county by the name of Barrell, and one gentleman besides William S. Lassell, to wit: William S. Lassell's father states that at the time the amendment aforesaid was made, the result of the election throughout the county was generally known in Chestertown.

On further cross examination;

On further examination,

On further cross examination, states that before the result of the election was known it was the general opinion of the persons with whom he conversed, that the ticket in question should not have been counted for William S. Lassell.

On further examination,

states that it was the general impression among the "whigs" that the said ticket ought not to have been counted, he has never heard any "whig" in Kent county, say said ticket ought to have been counted.

J. F. GORDON.

Test, Thomas M. Flint, clk.

David Arthur being sworn deposes and saith, that he was one of the clerks of election in District No. 2, in Kent county at the election held on the 3rd October last, he saw the ticket before referred to, on the night of the election, which was taken by Mr. Nicholson, chief judge, who handed it to Mr. Sappington, and afterwards to Mr. Mansfield, there being some informality about it; it was examined by a great many; there was some conversation among the judges, he does not remember what. Afterwards Mr. Nicholson said, we receive the ticket, and it was counted for William S. Lassell; he has no knowledge of what become of the ticket and has never seen it since, till this day; he did not examine the ticket so critically as to say whether there has been any alteration on its face or not; that witness read it Lassell.

On cross examination, states, that he did not hear Mr. Nicholson read the ticket before he handed it to Mr. Sappington, he made some remark about it, but does not recollect what it was.

DAVID ARTHUR.

Test, Thomas M. Flint, clk.