

C H A P. XIII.

Passed January 5, 1805.

An ACT to authorise and empower the levy court of Worcester county to assess and levy a sum of money for the purpose therein mentioned.

Preamble.

WHEREAS Lemuel Ennis, by his petition to this general assembly hath set forth, that he is a very poor man, and has several small children, that one of his said children, John Ennis, is now of the age of fifteen years, who was born blind, and continues so without the least hopes of his ever recovering his sight, and praying that a law may pass authorising the levy court of Worcester county to levy a sum of money for the support of his said son out of the poor-house; and the facts stated in the said petition appearing to be true, and the prayer thereof being reasonable, therefore,

Court to levy money, &c.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the levy court of Worcester county shall be and they are hereby directed and empowered, at their levy court annually, so long as they shall see cause, to assess and levy on the assessable property of the said county, a sum of money, not exceeding thirty dollars, for the support and maintenance of the said John Ennis, and that the same be collected annually by the collector or collectors of Worcester county, and paid to such person as the levy court of said county shall or may direct.

C H A P. XIV.

Passed January 5, 1805.

An ACT to authorise and empower the levy court of Worcester county to assess and levy a sum of money for the purpose therein mentioned.

Preamble.

WHEREAS Zadok Holston, by his petition to this general assembly hath set forth, that he hath for sometime past been deprived of his eyesight, by which he is unable to get his living, and that he is a very poor man, and praying that a law may pass for his support out of the poor-house; and the facts stated in the said petition appearing to be true, and the prayer thereof being reasonable, therefore,

Court to levy money, &c.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the justices of the levy court of Worcester county shall be and they are hereby directed and empowered, at their levy court annually, so long as they shall see cause, to assess and levy on the assessable property of said county, a sum of money, not exceeding fifty dollars, for the support and maintenance of the said Zadok Holston, and that the same be collected annually by the collector or collectors of Worcester county, and paid to such person or persons as the levy court of said county shall or may direct.

C H A P. XV.

Passed January 5, 1805.
Preamble.

An ACT for the benefit of Joyce Insley, of Dorchester county.
WHEREAS Joyce Insley, of Dorchester county, by her petition to this general assembly hath represented, that she had an illegitimate son, called George Slacum Insley, who hath lately died intestate, and without issue, that the said George Slacum Insley hath left a small personal estate: And whereas the said Joyce Insley hath also represented, that she is old and very infirm, and hath prayed that the right to the surplus estate of her said son, may be relinquished to, and vested in her, which appears to this legislature to be just and reasonable; therefore,

Justices to relinquish, &c.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the justices of the levy court of Dorchester county shall be and they are hereby authorised and required, to relinquish and release to the said Joyce Insley all the right, title, interest, estate and claim, which the said county hath, or may have, in virtue of the existing laws, in and to the personal of George Slacum Insley, deceased, son of the said Joyce Insley, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

C H A P. XVI.

Passed January 5, 1805.

An ACT to enable the levy court of Montgomery county to alter and change the direction of a road therein mentioned.

Preamble.

WHEREAS Nathaniel Offutt, of Edward, of Montgomery county, by his petition to this general assembly hath set forth, that he is much injured by the public road leading from the town of Rockville, in said county, to Patowmack river, which road runs through a part of his land; that the said road can be turned in such a manner on the line of several other tracts of land as to be