CHAPTER 36.

An act for the relief of Beal C. Stinchcomb of the county of Frederick.

Passed Jan. 18, 1825.
Preamble.

Whereas, Beal C. Stinchcomb of the county of Frederick, has set forth by his petition, in writing, to this General Assembly, that, as surviving partner of the late William E. Williams, with whom he was connected in business, until the death of said Williams, under the firm of Williams and Stinchcomb; he is chargeable with numerous debts, which he is, at present, utterly unable to pay; and that all his property has been seized and sold to satisfy judgments that were obtained against him, as surviving partner as aforesaid; and that many judgments remain open against him, which, if now enforced, must consign his body to jail, at the mercy of his creditors, as he is without the present means of satisfying any of said judgments, and without the reasonable pros-
