to the road leading to and the landing and wharf at the Ship Yard.
11. And be it enacted, That if the said commissioners or a majority of them, shall not proceed to execute the duties prescribed by this act and cause a landing and wharf to be established and erected within two years from and after the fifteenth day of May, eighteen hundred and twenty-five, then this act and every matter therein contained, shall cease and be void.

12. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners, or a majority of them, are hereby authorised and required in estimating the damages to be sustained by any person or persons in consequence of the operation of this act, to take into consideration all the circumstances which may render it injurious to the property of said person or persons to have established thereon the landing and wharf to be established by the said commissioners or a majority of them.

An act supplementary to an act passed at November session, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, entitled, An act to establish and regulate a market at Bridge-town, in Kent county, and for other purposes therein mentioned.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the inhabitants of Millington, in Kent and Queen Ann's counties, who by virtue of the act to which this is a supplement and the several supplements thereto, were entitled to vote for commissioners to regulate said town, and the market therein established, shall meet at the academy in said town, on the second Saturday of March next, between the hours of two and five o'clock P. M. and then and there elect by ballot, five persons, residents of the said town, to be commissioners thereof, and the said commissioners when elected, shall have and exercise all the powers and immunities heretofore vested in the commissioners of said town, by the act to which this is a supplement, and the several supplements thereto.

2. And be it enacted, That in case of neglect, or omission hereafter to elect on the second Saturday of March, in any year, the aforesaid commissioners, it shall be lawful for the inhabitants of the said town of Millington, who are entitled to vote in manner aforesaid, to meet and elect on any other day in the said year, five persons, residents of said town, to be commissioners thereof from the time of the election, until the second Saturday of March thence next ensuing; Provided, that no election of commissioners of the said town shall be held, unless five days notice of the time of holding said election shall be given by an advertisement to be set up at the market-house in said town and signed by some commissioner, justice of the peace, or five persons entitled to vote at the said election.

3. And be it enacted, That all such parts of the act to which this is a supplement, and of the several supplements thereto, as are not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and they are hereby declared to be revived and in force.

CHAPTER 144.

An act to amend an act concerning Crimes and Punishments.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all murder which shall be committed by any person or persons in the
