

Amendments proposed. Strike out the third enacting clause of the bill and insert, "Be it enacted, That the rents reserved as hereafter directed, shall be made payable to the said Judith C. Moale and Thomas Moale, who shall receive the same and account for them as aforesaid, until the said John Moale, William Armstead Moale and Richard Moale, or either of them, arrive at the age of twenty-one years, and on the arrival of either of them to the age aforesaid, the said Judith C. Moale and Thomas Moale, or the survivor of them, shall agree with the person of age aforesaid as to the persons who shall pay the rents to such heir of the age aforesaid, and for as aforesaid, until the other child shall arrive at said age, and that there shall be, as to such child, the same agreement as before mentioned, and so on until the whole are of age. And be it enacted, That in case the said more county, on the application of either of the parties, to determine what part and which of the rents shall be paid to such heir respectively, and that such determination shall be final until the whole arrive to the age aforesaid, but in case on their arrival at age they should not agree to confirm the said division or divisions, that then they shall hold again in common as if the said leases had been made by their deceased father. And be it enacted, That the respective child to whom the divisions as aforesaid shall be made, shall have full power and lawful authority to sue for a non-compliance with the terms of the lease, and declare as if the same was made to him, and recover in the same manner as if in fact such lease had been actually executed to such child; and in case they do not consent to the division made as aforesaid, that then they, or the survivors or survivor of them, may sue in the same manner until a legal division is obtained, and that then each of them, as to his respective part, shall have the same right to sue and recover as such child had under the first division." After the word "deceased" in the first line of the 4th page insert "which according to this law is directed to be paid to them." Strike out the word "minority" in the 6th line 4th page and insert "respective minorities."
