

Smith and Joshua Powers, and the engrossed bills from No. 1 to No. 23 inclusive, were sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers the engrossed bills from No. 24 to No. 119 inclusive, severally assented to by that house Jan. 1, 1813; which were severally read, assented to, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

On motion, Ordered, that the bill entitled, a further additional supplement to the act entitled, an act for the opening and extending of Pratt street in the city of Baltimore, be referred to the consideration of the next general assembly.

The bill entitled, an act to pay the civil list and other expences of civil government, was read the second time by special order, passed, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The bill entitled, an act to make valid a deed from Thomas W. Caulk to Lambert Veazey, for a tract of land called Wheeler's Point, lying in Cecil county, and to confirm to Thomas Marsh Forman his title to said land, was read the second time by special order and will not pass. Sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

On motion, leave given to bring in a bill entitled, an act to continue certain acts of assembly.

Ordered, that Mr. N. Williams, Mr. Brown and Mr. MacCreery be a committee to prepare and bring in the same.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers the following resolutions:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, Jan. 1, 1813.

Resolved, That the executive be requested to have printed on the most reasonable terms, all the testimony taken before the committee of grievances and courts of justice, relative to the late mobs and riots in the city of Baltimore, and cause one copy to be forwarded to each member of the general assembly; and they are hereby authorised to draw an order on the treasurer of the Western Shore for the amount of the expense of said printing.

By order,

UPTON S. REID, CLK.

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, Jan. 2, 1813.

Resolved, That the treasurer of the Western Shore be, and he is hereby authorised and directed to pay unto Thomas Carney, or his order, annually, in quarterly payments, a sum of money equal to the half pay of a private, as a further remuneration for his services during the revolutionary war.

By order,

UPTON S. REID, CLK.

And the following amendment to the constitution of the United States:

BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND.

Resolved, That the following be proposed as an amendment to the constitution of the United States, which, when ratified and confirmed by three fourths of the several states, shall be valid to all intents and purpose, as part of the constitution of the United States, viz: "The executive power shall be vested in a President of the United States of America: he shall hold his office during the term of four years, and then shall not be eligible as President until the expiration of five years after he shall have been out of that office; and together with the Vice-President, be elected as prescribed by the constitution."

Resolved, That the governor of Maryland forward to the different executives of the respective states, the foregoing amendment for their consideration.

Which were severally read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

The bill entitled, an act to provide for the administration of justice in cases of crimes and misdemeanors in the city and county of Baltimore, was read the second time by special order and will not pass. Sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The resolution in favor of Thomas Carney was read the second time by special order, assented to, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The amendment proposed to the constitution of the United States, was read the second time by special order, dissented from, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The resolution for printing the testimony taken before the committee of grievances and courts of justice, relative to the late mobs and riots in the city of Baltimore, was read the second time by special order, assented to, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The resolution in favor of Jehu Chandler was read the second time, assented to, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The resolution relative to the president and directors of the Potomac Company, was read the second time by special order, dissented from, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The resolution in favor of John Kean, jun. and Alexander Johnson, were severally read the second time by special order, assented to, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The bill entitled, an act to repeal an act entitled, an act to alter the times of the meeting of the court of appeals and for other purposes, was read the second time by special order, and will not pass. Sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The resolutions relative to the authority of the general government to order out the militia, were read the second time, and the question put, will the senate assent thereto.

The yeas and nays being required appeared as follow:

AFFIRMATIVE.

NEGATIVE.

Messrs. Davis, (President) Brown, Hawkins, Holbrook, L. Hollingsworth, MacCreery, Steven, N. Williams.

So it was unanimously determined in the negative, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

Mr. L. Hollingsworth from the committee to whom were committed the resolutions in favor of the officers and soldiers in the revolutionary war delivers the following report:

The committee to whom were referred the resolutions passed by the house of delegates in favor of certain soldiers of the revolutionary army, report, that in their opinion the resolutions in favor of Mi-