The clerk of the house of delegates delivers the resolution in favour of William Wellman, with the following message:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, February 14, 1830.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We return you the resolution in favour of William Wellman, under a hope that your honourable house will reconsider and assent to the same, when you are informed of his helpless situation. He is old and infirm, and very hard of hearing, his wife is equally infirm, and without a bed to lie on, and they have one child who is an idiot; while he was able to work, he never asked the charity of his country, and now feels unwilling to spend the wretched remnant of that life in an alms house, which in part
