

The supplement to the act to incorporate a company to make a turnpike road from the market space of Hager's Town, to the west bank of Conococheague, was read the second and by special order the third time, passed and sent to the house of delegates.

The bill to ascertain and establish in the third district of Somerset county a proper place of holding elections, and the bill for building a bridge over Tuckahoe creek, where the old bridge now stands, were severally read a second time and laid on the table.

The bill to authorise a lottery for the purpose of raising a sum of money to pave the streets of Belle Air, in Harford county, was read a second time and referred to Messrs Johnson, Quinlan and Dickenson.

The bill to make valid a lease therein mentioned, and the bill for the relief of William A. Schoolfield relating to certain land therein mentioned, were severally read a second time and laid on the table.

The bill for the relief of the poor of Worcester county, being supplementary to the act for the relief of the poor of the several counties of this state, was read a third time, passed and sent to the house of delegates.

The bill for the benefit of Barbara Hoffman, George Hoffman, Henry Crum and Barbara Crum his wife, John Hoffman and Peter Hoffman, of Frederick county, was read a third time and will not pass, and was sent to the house of delegates.

Mr. Bowie appeared in the senate.

The bill for the benefit of William K. Austin, of Talbot county, was read a third time and will not pass. Sent to the house of delegates.

The bill for the relief of Ann Key, administratrix of P. B. Key, was read a third time and will pass, and was sent to the house of delegates.

The senate resumed the consideration of the supplement to the act relating to runaway servants and slaves. Mr. Johnson moved to reconsider the first section, and the question being put, it was determined in the affirmative.

On motion of Mr. Johnson, the question was put, Will the senate strike out the word 'sixty,' in the 5th and 6th lines of 1st section, for the purpose of inserting 'thirty.' Determined in the negative.

On motion of Mr. Chambers, the question was put, Will the senate strike out the word 'thirty' in the 7th line of the 2d section and insert 'sixty?' Determined in the affirmative.

The bill being read throughout, the question was put, Shall the bill pass? Determined in the negative, and it was sent to the house of delegates.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivered a bill entitled, An act authorising a lottery for the benefit of the Rockville and Barn's town Roman Catholic congregations in Montgomery county; which was read the first and by special order a second time and referred to Messrs Johnson, Quinlan and Dickinson. Also a bill entitled, An act for the relief of Ann Merryman, of Baltimore; which was read the first time and laid on the table. Also a bill entitled, A further supplement to the act entitled, an act authorising a lottery to raise a sum of money to build a church in Charles county, passed at November session, eighteen hundred and seven; which was read the first and by special order a second and third time and referred to Messrs Johnson, Quinlan and Dickinson. Also a bill entitled, An act for the relief of Michael I. Ford, of the city of Baltimore, and a bill entitled, An act relating to public roads in Prince George's county; which were severally read the first time and laid on the table. And returns the bill to alter and change the place of holding the elections at Hall's cross roads in the second election district in Harford county, endorsed, 'will pass.'

Mr. Johnson from the committee reported a bill entitled, An act relating to the city of Baltimore, and to certain officers and elections therein mentioned; which was read the first time and laid on the table.

The bill concerning the judgments of justices of the peace, was read a second time, amended and ordered to be engrossed or a third reading.

The senate resumed the consideration of the unfinished business of yesterday, being the bill to provide for the appointment of inspectors of flour in the city of Baltimore. Mr. Bowie moved to commit the bill with instructions to provide for the removal of flour inspectors, and the question being put, was determined in the negative.

Mr. Chambers moved to postpone the further consideration of the bill until Saturday next, and the question was put and determined in the affirmative.

The bill concerning the judgments of justices of the peace was read a third time and will pass.

The bill to regulate the removal of certain civil cases from one county to another, was read a second time. Mr. Johnson moved to amend the bill by adding the following as two additional sections to the bill.

And be it enacted, That in any suit or action at law, now depending, or which may hereafter be commenced or instituted in any county court in the sixth judicial district of this state, the judges thereof upon suggestion in writing, by either of the parties thereto, supported by proper evidence, other than the party's own oath, that a fair and impartial trial cannot be had in the county court of the county where such suit or action is depending, shall and may order and direct the record of their proceedings in such suit or action to be transmitted to the judges of any county court within the district for trial, and the judges of such county court, to whom the said record shall be transmitted, shall hear and determine the same in like manner, as if such suit or action had been originally instituted therein; Provided nevertheless That such suggestion shall be made as aforesaid, before or during the term in which the issue or issues may be joined in said suit or action.

And be it enacted, That if any party presented or indicted in any of the county courts aforesaid