

By the Senate, January 17th, 1827.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We have received your message of the 11th inst. relative to the communication of the Honorable John C. Weems, on the subject of a naval academy and accede to your proposition. We have appointed on the part of the senate messrs.

to act in conjunction with the gentlemen appointed on the part of your honorable body.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivered a bill entitled, an act for the revaluation of real and personal property, in Washington county, and a bill entitled an act respecting the town of Clear Spring in Washington county, and returned the bill entitled, a further supplement to the act entitled, an act for making certain roads in Baltimore and Harford counties, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and fifteen, chapter forty eight, endorsed, "will pass" and the bill to provide for the preservation of the records belonging to the office of the clerk of Somerset county court, endorsed, will pass with the proposed amendments: amendments proposed, viz. strike out in the 10th and 11th lines of the 2nd page the words "one cent for every ten words" and insert "six cents for every hundred words," also in the second page 11th line, the words "one and a half cents" and insert one cent.

The senate adjourned until to-morrow morning 10 o'clock.

Thursday, January 18th, 1827.

The senate met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

The bill to appoint a warden for the jail of Baltimore county, was read a third time, passed, and sent to the house of delegates.

Mr. Sewell, from the committee, made an unfavourable report upon the bill to divorce Lucinda D. Lusby, and her husband, Thomas R. Lusby, of the city of Baltimore. The bill was then read a second time, and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Spence, from the committee, reported a bill entitled, an act to appoint commissioners to change the divisional line between the second and third election districts, in Worcester county, in order that the said third election district may be thereby enlarged, which was read the first and by special order a second and third time, passed, and sent to the house of delegates.

The bill for the re-valuation of the real and personal property in Washington county, was read the first time.

The bill respecting the town of Clear Spring, in Washington county, was read the first time.

The amendments proposed by the house of delegates, to the bill to provide for the preservation of the records, belonging to