Richard Lee and Benedict Calvert, Esquires, from the Upper House, acquaint Mr. Speaker, that the Governor requires the Attendance of the Lower House in the Upper House.

Mr. Speaker left the Chair, and, attended with the Members of the Lower House, went to the Upper House, where his Excellency made the following Speech:

Gentlemen of the Lower House of Assembly,

As you thought proper at our last Meeting to depart from the usual Method of presenting your Petition to the Governor for Approbation, a short Recess became necessary, that nothing might be precipitated in an Affair, that you apprehended concerned your Privileges, which you may be assured I shall always think myself obliged to maintain with the same Zeal as if I was a Member of your House: And I make no Doubt
