M O N D A Y, December 20, 1802.

THE house met. Present the same members as on Saturday, except Mr. Young. The proceedings of Saturday were read. Mr. Cromwell appeared in the house.

The bill authorising the levy court of Worcester county to open a road in said county, was read the second time, passed, and sent to the senate by the clerk.

The bill to lay out and open a public road in Queen-Anne's county, was read the second time, passed, and sent to the senate by the clerk.

On motion, ORDERED, That the bill to make navigable the river Susquehanna be withdrawn. The following resolutions being propounded to the house were read.

RESOLVED, That the governor and council be and they are hereby authorised and requested to appoint commissioners on the part of the state of Maryland, to meet such commissioners as may be appointed on the part of the state of Pennsylvania at such time and place as may mutually be agreed upon, to digest and prepare such plan or compact for the further and effectual improvement of the navigation of the river Susquehanna, as may appear to them, or to a majority of them, most conducive to the joint interests, which plan or compact, when reported to, and ratified by, the succeeding legislatures of the two states, shall be mutually binding and obligatory.

RESOLVED, That the governor be and he is hereby requested to forward the foregoing resolution to the governor of the state of Pennsylvania.

RESOLVED, That the governor and council be and they are hereby authorised and required to make such compensation to the commissioners to be appointed by the foregoing resolution, when they shall have executed the duties therein prescribed, as they shall deem just and reasonable, by order drawn on the treasurer of the western shore, who is hereby directed to pay the same out of any unappropriated money in the treasury.

A petition from sundry inhabitants of Washington county, praying an act may pass authorising the levy court of said county to appoint commissioners to lay out a road in said county, was preferred, read, and referred to Mr. Tilghman, Mr. Smith and Mr. Kershner, to consider and report thereon.

The bill to authorise the levy court of Montgomery county to settle and adjust the account of James Beall, of James, was read the second time, passed, and sent to the senate by the clerk.

Mr. Orrell, from the committee, delivers to the speaker a bill, entitled, An act for the relief of Elizabeth Dukes, of Dorchester county; which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.
