

quire the payment of two hundred dollars for a license to sell lottery tickets in the city of Baltimore, or within five miles thereof.

And the question thereon, being taken, was resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Hughes moved further to amend the said section, by striking out the words 'twenty five,' in the tenth line thereof, in the printed bill, and inserting in lieu thereof, the word 'fifty;' so as to require the payment of fifty dollars for a license to sell lottery tickets elsewhere in the state, than in the city of Baltimore, or within five miles thereof.

And the question thereon being taken, was resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Thomas moved to amend the eleventh section of the bill, by appending at the end thereof, the following:

'And provided also, that the provisions of this act shall not be deemed applicable to such dispositions of personal property, of small value, as shall be made by raffle or lot, and which shall not be intended as evasions of the lottery system.'

Mr. Teackle moved to modify the proposed amendment, by adding at the end thereof, these words, 'but the same shall be liable to prosecution under the existing laws of this state.'

Mr. Thomas accepted the proposed modification, and it was adopted by the house.

On the question, Will the house agree to the amendment proposed and thus modified? It was resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Teackle moved further to amend the bill by inserting therein, after the 16th section, the following as an additional, and the 17th section, viz.

'Section 17. And be it enacted, That the tenth, eleventh, twelfth and thirteenth sections of an act, entitled, An act to amend the lottery system, chapter 160, passed at December session 1827, shall be and they hereby are made applicable as follows; that is to say, the tenth section thereof shall be considered as applicable to the sixth section, and the eleventh section to the seventh, and the twelfth section to the eighth, and the thirteenth section to the ninth; any thing in the said original act contained, to the contrary notwithstanding.'

And the question thereon, being taken, was resolved in the affirmative.

On motion by Mr. Grason, the house agreed to reconsider the 11th section of the bill; when he proposed further to amend the same, by erasing therefrom, these words, 'and the property so offered for sale or disposition by lot, chance, or lottery as aforesaid, either before or after the determination of the said lot, chance, or lottery, shall and is hereby declared to be forfeited to this state.'

And on the question, Will the house agree thereto? It was resolved in the affirmative.

On motion by Mr. Thomas, the eleventh section was further amended, by the insertion, after the word, "year," in
