GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK

SHALL BE THE MAGAZINE FOR 1848! Enterprise and capital are employed upon it, and it is, as it always has been under the superintendence of the subscriber.

It affords us much satisfaction to be able to state, that we have made arrangements with Mr. SARTAIN, the accomplished mezzotint engraver, whose plates have contributed so much to the beauty of the Magazine heretofore, by which we secure the most Beautiful Embellishments, from the hands of the first artists, and, consequently, far superior to those in any other Magazine, adorn the "Book."

ORNAMENT AND UTILITY ARE COMBINED. The popular series of articles on Health, Model Cottages, and Needle-work, &c., illustrated with fine engravings, will be continued, and such other features as can be made subservient to the grand design of the work, the Mental and Moral Improvement of its readers, will from time to time be added.

COLORED FASHIONS

TO THE WHIGS OF DORSET

The undersigned, proprietor of the "CAMBRIDGE CHRONICLE," wishing to give his Journal a larger circulation in order that its efficiency as an advocate of Whig principles may be thereby increased, respectfully appeals to the Whigs of Dorchester to sustain him by their patronage. He pledges himself to spare no pains to make the "Chronicle" a useful and interesting sheet—ardently devoted to the maintenance of Whig principles, and at the same time furnishing an interesting summary of COMMERCIAL, AGRICULTURAL and LITERARY intelligence. The ensuing year promises to be one of almost unprecedented importance.

The deep and momentous questions growing out of the Mexican war address themselves to the heart of every patriot—are such as menace the stability of our Union, and should be thoroughly understood by the people. Congress will probably be in session at least eight months of the year, and in that body questions will arise and be discussed and settled that it behoves every man to understand. It will be the constant aim of the undersigned to furnish the subscribers to the "Chronicle" with full and reliable information upon those vital questions, and with the latest news. Independently of this, every man is concerned in the local news transpiring in the County, and to keep pace with that would of itself be sufficient compensation for the small outlay required to pay for the paper. Again, it is the manifest duty of the Whig party to render a liberal support to its press. Without its powerful aid no party could long exist, and surely the Whig party is not so unreasonable as to require the aid of a party paper without a fair equivalent. Every man who believes the principles of the Whig party to be the true principles of the government, and who desires their success should aid in supporting a Whig paper. The sum required is small—nothing in fact compared to the benefit he derives in return. And the subscriber trusts that his efforts to advance the glory and honor of the Whig party will be met in a proper spirit by its members, and that they will come forward and attest their devotion to Whig principles by subscribing to the "Chronicle."

TERMS.—$2 per annum, if paid in advance, or $2 50cts. if not paid until the end of the year. Dec. 4, 1847. JAMES M. JONES.

A gentleman of high standing in the society of Friends, speaks as follows of the great remedy, Hunt's Liniment:
 Newcastle, 11th month, 1st, 1844.
 George E. Stanton.
 Esteemed Friend:—Thy letter of the 29th ultimo is received. In my reply I would say, that I have been troubled with a lame knee for several years, during which time it has distressed me much. I procured a bottle of Hunt's Liniment at thy store, early last spring, and I have used it freely, and I can say that since that time I have had little or no trouble with my knee. A friend, to whom I sent a bottle, informs me that it was a great benefit to her in a rheumatic affection. I have no hesitation in recommending it to any persons needing an external remedy.

JACOB GRIFFEN

Graham for 1848.

THE MOST POPULAR MONTHLY IN THE WORLD.

The Leading Writers all in "Graham" William C. Bryant, J. Fenimore Cooper, William Henry Herbert, Theodore S. Fay, W. Gilmore Simms, Fanny Forester, Mrs. A. M. F. Annan, Mrs. Amelia B. Wolly, N. P. Willis, Professor Longfellow, J. K. Paulding, Charles J. Hoffman, Edgar A. Poe, E. P. Whipple, Mrs. Stephens, Mrs. Sigourney.

"GRAHAM" is now universally acknowledged to surpass, in the excellence and variety of its contents, and the styles of its execution, any periodical ever published in America, and it is questionable whether any magazine in the world—not excepting even Blackwood's—ever presented an array of contributors of equal reputation. Its circulation is about one-third larger than that of any other monthly in the English language.

We have resolved as far as "Graham" is concerned, to give a proper direction to the popular taste; and propose, in the coming volume, greatly to amplify the literary department of the work—to engage none but the very best writers—to open a field for young writers of merit—and, in fine, to cultivate a National Periodical Literature, which shall command respect at home and abroad.

While all other monthly periodicals are crumbling to decay, and resorting to every expedient to save themselves from destruction, 'Graham' pursues the even tenor of its way, proudly at the head of the periodical literature of the day—with its 50,000 readers, gradually widening its influence, and extending its circulation. The policy adopted in this Magazine, of giving the best both in Literature and Art, has established it upon sure basis of public confidence.

ELEGANT PARIS FASHIONS IN EVERY NUMBER.

"Graham" for 1848 will be beyond all doubt so far superior to the class of small magazines which attempt to imitate it, that in every post town it will utterly route them out. For why should any man or woman pay money for a second rate article, when the best is offered at the same price.—Reader think for yourself, examine and subscribe for the best Periodical and do not be deluded by the stale and never redeemed promises of those whose words are as worthless as their wares. It is fact that for the last seven years, promises have been made of excellent 'GRAHAM,' by every petty pretender, yet the Magazine still maintains triumphantly the ascendancy.

We promise our readers in January such a number as shall pale "the ineffectual fires" of our imitators, who seize a good idea which we executed, and make it common by the baseness of the copy.

PORTRAITS OF ARMY HEROES.

We have already given our readers a magnificent likeness of General Taylor, and have now executed a magnificent Likeness of Gen. BUTLER, and shall follow rapidly with portraits of all the leading men who have distinguished themselves in the present war. This series of portraits will be prized by every patriot.

We design to commence in the January number, in addition to New Novels by Fay and Willis, a most beautiful Sea Story, which has been highly praised by the best judges, and has only been withheld from our readers in the last volume as we had already running through the Magazine the Novel by Cooper. For the New Year, we have made the most liberal arrangements in regard to the work, with the determination to make

A GREAT NATIONAL MAGAZINE, contributed to by the highest talent in the country—free from all cliques and sectional differences, and relying on the merits of its Literary Matter, and the excellence of the illustrations, for a still wider support. The volume to be opened with a new and beautiful type, the finest white paper; and with a series of Mezzotints, unsurpassed by any which have yet appeared in any Magazine.

OUR MEZZOTINT ENGRAVINGS.

It affords us much satisfaction to be able to state, that we have made arrangements with Sartin, the accomplished mezzotint engraver, whose plates have contributed so much to the beauty of the Magazine heretofore, by which we secure his splendid Mezzotints for this work alone. His beautiful engravings will therefore form a feature of Graham's Magazine, so that we shall be able to distance any thing like competition on this ground.

OUR BEAUTIFUL FASHION PLATES.

These exquisite creations of taste and skill we have engaged exclusively, from the publisher of "Le Follet," and all other efforts to get them have failed. An attempt has been made to deceive the public, by re-engraving the old designs; but these duplicates are so far beneath the Original Paris designs sent to 'Graham,' that they excite only contempt. Our arrangements are complete, and we cannot be equalled in the beauty and correctness of this department of the Magazine. These plates appear in every number.

STANTON'S EXTERNAL REMEDY, CALLED HUNT'S LINIMENT.

Is universally acknowledged to be the infallible Remedy for Rheumatism, Spinal Affections, Contractions of the Muscles, Sore Throat and Quinsy, Issues, Old Ulcers, Pains in the Back and Chest, Ague in the breast and Face, Tooth ache, Sprains, Bruises, Salt Rheum, Burns, Croup, Frosted Feet, and all Nervous Diseases.

The triumphant success which has attended the application of this most wonderful Medicine in curing the most severe cases of the different diseases above named,—and the high encomiums that have been bestowed upon it, wherever it has been introduced, gives me the right to call on the afflicted to resort at once to the only remedy that can be relied on.

The faculty unite in recommending the celebrated External Remedy, Hunt's Liniment: The following letter from the highly eminent Physicians who have been attached to the Mount Pleasant State Prison for many years, is the best evidence of the value of this celebrated Liniment.

Sing Sing, December 25, 1846.

My Dear Sir:—I received your note of yesterday, asking my opinion in relation to Hunt's Liniment, as prepared by Mr. George E. Stanton. Knowing its composition, and having frequently used it, I can recommend it to you as a safe External Remedy, and in my opinion the best Liniment now in use.

Very truly and respectfully yours,
A. H. HOFFMAN.
Col. Pierre Van Cortlandt, Croton Manor.
I fully concur in the above opinion.
W. N. BELCHER.
Yorktown, January 14, 1845.

Sir:—In reply to your letter, I would say that I have used your External Remedy, called Hunt's Liniment, in my practice since you made me acquainted with its composition, and unhesitatingly say that I believe it to be the best External Remedy now in use for the complaints for which you recommend it.

Yours respectfully,
BENJ. D. MILLER, M. D.
GEO. E. STANTON, Esq.
From the N. Y. Sun.

Among the mass of worthless articles and humbugs that are poured forth at the present day upon the country, it is really refreshing to find something of real practical utility, something simple, speedy, and effectual in its operation, and at the same time free from those injurious effects which generally attend powerful remedies. Hunt's Liniment, prepared by Geo. E. Stanton, of Sing Sing, though it has been but a short time before the public, has already obtained the confidence, not only of our most wealthy and influential citizens, but our most eminent physicians. All acknowledge it to be sovereign balm for many of the ills that flesh is heir to, soothing the aching limb, and by its genuine stimulating influence, banishing disease from the system.

Mr. Stanton—Sir, seeing your advertisement of Hunt's Liniment, I was induced to try its effects on my son, who had been crippled with a lame back from an infant; and it is with gratitude I bear testimony to its wonderful healing properties. My child who is now five years of age, is now in a fair way of recovery.

Yours, &c.
DEMMON C. NICKERSON.
Post Office, Towners, Putnam co.

I certify that I am personally acquainted with the above named child, and think the father would be safe in saying that his son is almost well.
J. W. DYKMAN,
Nov. 5, 1845. Deputy Post Master.

P. S. I would also state that I have been for a number of years subject to frequent attacks of the Rheumatism, which in many instances prevented my attending to my business. Two or three applications of the Liniment invariably remove all affections of the kind. In cases of bruises, sprains, and sores too numerous to mention, it has in this vicinity proved a certain remedy. Its value can only be estimated by those who have given it a fair trial.

This Liniment is sold at 25 and 50 cents per bottle, by all the principal Druggists and Merchants throughout the country.

"SUGAR COATED" PILLS.

BEWARE! CAUTION!!
The increasing popularity of Dr. G. Benj. Smith's improved Indian Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills, has induced a number of persons to make something they call pills, and coat them with sugar, in order to sell them for the genuine, while they do not possess a particle of the goodness, nor even assimilate in appearance the original Dr. Smith's Pills. In short, they are an intended fraud upon the community.

A minister who at first had an interest in an imitation Sugar Coated Pill, manufactured at Albany, N. Y., has given them up, as he says, on account of the miserable dishonest parties concerned in manufacturing them.—The same party are now industriously circulating reports calculated to injure Dr. Smith and to affect the reputation of his valuable pills; but rather than notice them in public, Dr. Smith is about to institute legal proceedings against them for their slanders, as he has in another cause against a similar party, in which he recovered a large amount of damages. These miserable imitators have to resort to the most abominable means to palm off their counterfeit pills as the public know Dr. Smith's are the original and genuine. Several instances have come to public notice in which life has been endangered by the unfortunate use of the counterfeits.

REMARKABLE CURE OF COLD,

NEW YORK, MARCH 2, 1846.

I very imprudently went out last week with a pair of shoes on, having sent my boots to the boot maker for repair, and I took a very severe cold, which settled in my limbs, stiffened my neck, and rendered me wholly incapable of attending to business. On the following night I took six of Dr. Smith's Indian Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills, which entirely relieved me, and the next day I felt as well as usual.—I know they are the best medicine that can be used for colds.

JOHN ADAM,
No. 20, 5th street.

COMPLICATED DISEASE CURED.

[From the rev John Kellett.]

Brooklyn, 127 Myrtle st. Oct 1, 1846.

Dr. Smith—Sir, it is with great satisfaction I acknowledge the benefit my wife has received from the use of a few boxes of your pills which she used at the recommendation of a friend. Having fallen into bad health early in winter, she used them with perfect safety even in that cold season. She has at times, used Morrison's Moffat's and others, and she states she has received more benefit from them than all the others. She believes they may be used with perfect safety by females, without changing either their employment or diet, and that at any season of the year.

Yours respectfully, JOHN KELLETT,
Wesleyan Methodist Minister
To Dr. Smith, 179 Greenwick street; N. Y.

AGUE & FEVER CURED.

Mr G B Remson, (Grocer, Middle Village, L I) says he sold Dr Smith's Indian Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills to two persons there for the fever and ague, and a permanent cure was, in both cases, speedily effected. For headache, colds, fevers, dyspepsia low spirits, &c, there is not their equal to be found in the whole range of pharmacy. Be careful of imitations, base counterfeits, and mind that the written signature of G Benj Smith is on the bottom of each box otherwise spurious pills will be palmed on you.

BAD COUGH CURED:

New York May 25, 1846

I have been afflicted with a bad cough, so that I raised blood, and at times was under the necessity of neglecting my business. Last fall I commenced using Dr. Smith's Pills, and now used three boxes, which have entirely cured my cough I have taken no other medicine.

MORRIS & WILLIS'S HOME JOURNAL, FOR FAMILY CULTURE.

After a great deal of experience in the art of sutting a newspaper to the prevailing want, we have selected our present model of shape and type, and have decided on the present plan and contents, as, in the first place, the cheapest, most improving and most amusing to the reader—and, in the next place, (which is important, too,) the best calculated to put forth the powers of the Editors themselves. We take a pride in carefully matured model, and in the peculiar character selected for our paper. Living in the very centre of new literature, we ransack the counters of booksellers, and give the essence of new books. Receiving all the English Periodicals, we carefully watch the active intellects devoted to ephemeral literature, and pick the gems of Foreign Periodicals. We receive the admirable journals of France, and translate with diligent care the wit, gayety, and curious novelty of life in Paris. Of the great metropolis we live in, we give the gossip, news, movements and doings, and of the country generally we give a summary of things novel and noteworthy, keeping a record, at the same time of all the great thoughts going past us, and commenting on the new opinions, new writers, and new inventions. We have two or three peculiar admirable contributors. In short, it differs from all other papers, and we have every means of making it most valuable. We have embarked our ambition, energies and best resources, in the character, success, and good influence of THE HOME JOURNAL.

The publication of DOMBEY AND SON will be continued as heretofore; without any abridgement of the usual contents of the paper. Each part will be issued in an extra, as soon as it reaches this country, and distributed gratuitously to the subscribers of THE HOME JOURNAL. By this arrangement our readers will receive this popular story at the earliest possible date, and sooner than it can be issued by any of the booksellers or publishing houses in the country. To new subscribers, remitting a year's subscription ($2) in advance, we will send the seven parts already out, GRATIS.

Subscriber at the office of publication, No. 107 Fulton-street, and not at any other place in the city.

The well established reputation of this work makes it unnecessary to say more of its merits than to state the fact that it has superceded all others on the subject in the State of Maryland. For the Justice of the peace and Constable it may in some measure stand in the place of a law library—to the merchant and man of business, and to the property holder either in town or country it is very valuable, as it treats of matters of almost daily interest to all classes of the community.—All the laws which affect the duties of the Justice of the Peace passed up to December session 1846 inclusive, have been noticed in this edition, and various improvements in the arrangement of the different subjects treated upon have been made.
